4 Contact city officials

Most of the library's budget comes from your tax dollars. The mayor and aldermen decide how to spend those dollars. Let them know that financial support of the library is important to you. You can find their email addresses at nashuanh.gov—scroll down to the Contact Us section.

5 Volunteer

The Friends of the Library need volunteers to plan programs and prepare for and staff the annual book sale. To help, send an email to board@nplfriends.com.

Teens can volunteer through the Teen Department. Call (603) 589-4601 for more information.

7 Make a donation

Donations take many forms. You can:

Send a check

Please make it payable to the Nashua Public Library, and mail it to:

Nashua Public Library
Administration Office
2 Court Street
Nashua, NH 03060

Make small donations

When you pay a fine, you can always let the library keep the change. Those quarters add up!

Make a planned gift

- Give in memory of a friend or loved one. Relatives of people who have passed away sometimes ask that memorial gifts in lieu of flowers be sent. We will send an acknowledgment to the family for memorial gifts.
- Arrange a gift in the form of a bequest in your will. Or designate the library as a beneficiary of a life insurance policy.
- Endow a trust fund in your name or a loved one's name. The original gift remains on deposit perpetually, earning interest that funds materials, furniture, special projects and other items.

For planned giving, contact Library Director Jen McCormack at (603) 589-4620 or jennifer.mccormack@nashualibrary.org

8 Use it!

Library funding is based on how many people have library cards, borrow materials, visit the library, use our website, ask for help at our service desks, and attend our programs. So if you value your library, use it!

I love the Nashua Public Library! What can I do to support it?

Here are eight things you can do—
whether you have a little money,
a lot of money, or no money at all.

1 Join the Friends

The Friends of the Nashua Public Library is a nonprofit group that raises money for the library and encourages public support and use of the library. Some members of the Friends limit their involvement to a yearly financial contribution; others are active in book sales, fundraising or cultural activities.

Join using the attached membership form, or at nashualibrary.org/connect/friends-of-the-library/join.

2 Come to a Friends meeting

Drop in to a meeting of the Friends (usually the second Monday of the month at 7 pm) to find out what they're all about. Email board@nplfriends.com if you would like more information.

3 Donate books and buy books

When you donate books, CDs, or movies, the library staff sorts through them to see if they are needed in the collection. If not, they are turned over to the Friends of the Library and sold in their book sale area in the front lobby, or at the big annual book sale in the spring. Pick up a few when you visit—most of them cost just a dollar or two, and proceeds benefit the library.

If you love your library, tell your friends! Point them to www.nashualibrary.org.
